

ST. JOHN'S ANGLICAN CHURCH
TOORAK
EST. 1859

Fifth Sunday of Easter

19th May, 2019

Welcome

On behalf of everyone at St. John's, Toorak, a very warm welcome to this church and faith community. St. John's welcomes everyone to all services and events, regardless of age, gender, sexual orientation, race or background.

This is a wonderful and historic church, founded in 1859, and celebrating our 160th year! We are part of the Anglican Church of Australia and a member of the global Anglican Communion, comprised of 80 million people.

Regular services of worship are held each Sunday at 8am and 10am, Wednesday at 7pm, and Thursday at 12.15pm. All are welcome. Services are followed by times of fellowship over food and drinks to which everyone is also welcome.

This church actively follows Jesus' command to love God, love one's neighbour and to care for all people. Our clergy and parishioners regularly visit the sick, home-bound, and the dying. We care for the poor and needy through service and charitable giving, through our Opportunity Shop run in partnership with the local Catholic and Uniting churches, and by supporting the work of Anglicare, The Brotherhood of St. Laurence and The Anglican Board of Mission. Our clergy regularly baptise new members of the church, preside at weddings and care for the grieving through our funeral ministry. If we can be of service to you or your family, please do not hesitate to get in touch. If you would like to give of your time and talents in the service of others, please also contact the church and we will gladly welcome your contribution.

If you're visiting for the first time do please introduce yourself to a welcomer or member of the clergy, and fill out the blue 'Welcome' card found at the end of every pew so we can stay in touch with you.

*The 8am service begins with the Introductory Rite below.
The 10am service begins with the processional hymn 207*

INTRODUCTORY RITE please stand

Blessed be God: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.
Blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever.

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

Christ is risen, Alleluia! He is risen indeed, Alleluia!

Hymn 207 'Jesus shall reign where'er the sun' At 8am, first & last verses only

The Collect for Purity

Almighty God, to whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hidden: cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy name, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Two Great Commandments

'Hear, O Israel, the Lord your God, the Lord is one; you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength.' Jesus said: 'This is the great and first commandment. And a second is like it: you shall love your neighbour as yourself.'

Confession

Christ our Passover Lamb has been offered for us, therefore we come to celebrate the festival. Let us confess our sins in penitence and faith, with a sincere and a true heart.

Merciful God, our maker and our judge, we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, and in what we have failed to do: we have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves; we repent, and are sorry for all our sins. Father, forgive us. Strengthen us to love and obey you in newness of life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Absolution pronounced by the celebrant

Gloria in Excelsis at 8am said together, at 10am sung with the choir

Glory to God in the highest, and peace to God's people on earth. Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory. Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us; you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Collect for Fifth Sunday of Easter

The celebrant prays the collect, after which all are seated

The Children's Address

At the 10am service, all children are invited to join together at the chancel step

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

The First Lesson Acts 11.1-18

Read at 8am by Lindsay Hosking and at 10am by Rex Williams

¹Now the apostles and the believers who were in Judea heard that the Gentiles had also accepted the word of God. ²So when Peter went up to Jerusalem, the circumcised believers criticized him, ³saying, 'Why did you go to uncircumcised men and eat with them?' ⁴Then Peter began to explain it to them, step by step, saying, ⁵'I was in the city of Joppa praying, and in a trance I saw a vision. There was something like a large sheet coming down from heaven, being lowered by its four corners; and it came close to me. ⁶As I looked at it closely I saw four-footed animals, beasts of prey, reptiles, and birds of the air. ⁷I also heard a voice saying to me, "Get up, Peter; kill and eat." ⁸But I replied, "By no means, Lord; for nothing profane or unclean has ever entered my mouth." ⁹But a second time the voice answered from heaven, "What God has made clean, you must not call profane." ¹⁰This happened three times; then everything was pulled up again to heaven. ¹¹At that very moment three men, sent to me from Caesarea, arrived at the house where we were. ¹²The Spirit told me to go with them and not to make a distinction between them and us. These six brothers also accompanied me, and we entered the man's house. ¹³He told us how he had seen the angel standing in his house and saying, "Send to Joppa and bring Simon, who is called Peter; ¹⁴he will give you a message by which you and your entire household will be saved."

¹⁵And as I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell upon them just as it had upon us at the beginning. ¹⁶And I remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said, "John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit." ¹⁷If then God gave them the same gift that he gave us when we believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I that I could hinder God?' ¹⁸When they heard this, they were silenced. And they praised God, saying, 'Then God has given even to the Gentiles the repentance that leads to life.'

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Psalter Psalm 148 said together at 8am, sung by the choir at 10am

O praise him in the heights.

² Praise him, all his angels:

O praise him, all his host.

³ Praise him, sun and moon:

praise him, all you stars of light.

⁴ Praise him, you highest heaven:

and you waters that are above the heavens.

⁵ Let them praise the name of the Lord:

for he commanded and they were made.

⁶ He established them for ever and ever:

he made an ordinance which shall not pass away.

⁷ O praise the Lord from the earth:

praise him, you sea-monsters and all deeps;

⁸ Fire and hail, mist and snow:

and storm-wind fulfilling his command;

⁹ Mountains and all hills:

fruit trees and all cedars;

¹⁰ Beasts of the wild, and all cattle:

creeping things and winged birds;

¹¹ Kings of the earth, and all peoples:

princes, and all rulers of the world;

¹² Young men and maidens:

old folk and children together.

¹³ Let them praise the name of the Lord:

for his name alone is exalted.

¹⁴ His glory is above earth and heaven:
and he has lifted high the horn of his people.

¹⁵ Therefore he is the praise of all his servants:
of the children of Israel, a people that is near him. Praise the Lord.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen

The Second Lesson Revelation 21.1-6

Reader required for 8am, and at 10am read by Keith Beecher

¹Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. ²And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. ³And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, 'See, the home of God is among mortals. He will dwell with them; they will be his peoples, and God himself will be with them; ⁴he will wipe every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; mourning and crying and pain will be no more, for the first things have passed away.' ⁵And the one who was seated on the throne said, 'See, I am making all things new.' Also he said, 'Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true.' ⁶Then he said to me, 'It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. To the thirsty I will give water as a gift from the spring of the water of life.

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

At the 10am service please stand for the Gradual Hymn

Gradual Hymn (At 10am only) 699 'A new commandment'

At both services we stand and turn to face the gospel as it is read

The Gospel John 13.31-35

The Holy Gospel according to St. John, Chapter 13, commencing at verse thirty one. Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

³¹When he had gone out, Jesus said, 'Now the Son of Man has been glorified, and God has been glorified in him. ³²If God has been glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself and will glorify him at once.

³³Little children, I am with you only a little longer. You will look for me; and as I said to the Jews so now I say to you, "Where I am going, you cannot come." ³⁴I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another. ³⁵By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

The Sermon The Vicar

Anthem Pater noster

Jacob Handl (1550-1591)

Text: 'Our Father, who art in heaven'

Nicene Creed said together, standing

We believe in one God, the Father, the almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one being with the Father; through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary and became truly human. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People kneeling

At 8am by a volunteer intercessor and at 10am by John Horan

The Prayers end with the following

Almighty God, you have promised to hear our prayers.

Grant that what we have asked in faith we may by your grace receive, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Greeting of Peace standing

We are the body of Christ. His Spirit is with us.

The peace of the Lord be always with you. And also with you.

All share with each other the sign of peace, customarily shaking hands with those around them, and saying, 'Peace be with you'

Parish Stewardship 2018 - 2019: Update

We are now mid-way through our Stewardship for the period of 2018 - 2019, which is an opportune time to review where we stand in relation to our stewardship of the parish. Interestingly, our current parish recorder, Helen Ballantyne, who has held this position since October 2014, has informed me that in her time of recording this is our best year to date with anticipated pledges for the year 2018 -2019 on track to be close to $150,000. When we consider for the year 2014 - 2015 this was in the vicinity of $100,000, and pledge income for the years 2014, 15, 16 and 17 was also received from All Saints Kooyong, this is a most pleasing result. Many thanks to all of you who contribute to our church in this fashion.

Nevertheless we cannot afford to be complacent! To give you a few facts:

- Our annual stipend and salary expenditure for Peter, Elizabeth, Sally and Chris is a modest $300,000.
- The estimated maintenance and cleaning costs alone for our properties is $55,000.
- We thus have to rely on investments and rental incomes to make up the rest of our $550,000 annual budget.
- We have approximately 180 households on our parish roll of which 66 (a third) are pledging - imagine how much better off we could be if more parishioners were committed to pledging? If you do not do so already, please give this your prayerful consideration.

I remain very positive about our future as we are blessed with parishioners who support, volunteer and are committed to the spiritual, financial and fellowship growth of St John's.

2019 Diocesan Synod - call for Lay Representatives IMPORTANT

In the Anglican Church, a diocese is governed by a synod (pr. [sin-uh d]), that is, a bishop acting with the advice and consent of representatives of the clergy and laity of the diocese. The presiding bishop (in the case of the Diocese of Melbourne, the Archbishop) calls the synod to meet, usually annually, to discuss, debate and decide on various matters of business such as the Diocesan budget, legislation for consideration by the General Synod of the Anglican Church of Australia, and other issues that concern the church. The synod also elects people to various committees and boards in the Diocese, as well as choosing General Synod representatives. The synod is divided into the House of Clergy, and the House of Laity. All clergy licensed to the Diocese of Melbourne are automatically members of the synod. Parishes elect lay synod representatives from their congregation. The number of representatives from each parish depends on the structure and size of the parish.

This year Synod meets at St. Paul's Cathedral from Wednesday 16 October (7-10pm), Thursday 17 October (7-10pm), Friday 18 October (7-10pm) and Saturday 19 October (10am-5pm (although often finishes earlier)). Synod commences with a grand and moving service in the Cathedral on the Wednesday evening and a presidential Address by the Archbishop and Primate. Each evening is marked by interesting and often vigorous debate and speakers and often major decisions about the life of the church are made. It is possible depending upon the agenda to attend some and not all of the proceedings.

This is a major and important event in the life of our Diocese and it is extremely important that we have a full component of lay representatives from St. John's. We are entitled to elect 3 lay representatives and 1 alternate lay representative (in the case that one of the former 3 is unavoidably unavailable). Please contact the Vicar (vicar@saintjohnstoorak.org) to express your interest in such a position. In case of there being more people interested than positions available, then an election will be held on Sunday 16 June immediately following the 10am service.
