

ST. JOHN'S ANGLICAN CHURCH
TOORAK
EST. 1859

Eighteenth Sunday after Pentecost

13th October, 2019

Welcome

On behalf of everyone at St. John's, Toorak, a very warm welcome to this church and faith community. St. John's welcomes everyone to all services and events, regardless of age, gender, sexual orientation, race or background.

This is a wonderful and historic church, founded in 1859, and celebrating our 160th anniversary this year! We are part of the Anglican Church of Australia and a member of the global Anglican Communion, comprised of 80 million people.

Regular services of worship are held each Sunday at 8am and 10am, and Wednesday at 7pm. All are welcome. Services are followed by times of fellowship over food and drinks to which everyone is also welcome.

This church actively follows Jesus' command to love God, love one's neighbour and to care for all people. Our clergy and parishioners regularly visit the sick, home-bound, and the dying. We care for the poor and needy through service and charitable giving, through our Opportunity Shop run in partnership with the local Catholic and Uniting churches, and by supporting the work of Anglicare, The Brotherhood of St. Laurence and The Anglican Board of Mission. Our clergy regularly baptise new members of the church, preside at weddings and care for the grieving through our funeral ministry. If we can be of service to you or your family, please do not hesitate to get in touch. If you would like to give of your time and talents in the service of others, please also contact the church and we will gladly welcome your contribution.

If you're visiting for the first time do please introduce yourself to a welcomer or member of the clergy, and fill out the blue 'Welcome' card found at the end of every pew so we can stay in touch with you.

The 8am service begins with the Introductory Rite below.

The 10am service begins with the processional hymn 472

The sung setting of the Eucharist for 10am, by former Director of Music Thomas Heywood, is found on the blue sheets in each pew.

INTRODUCTORY RITE please stand

Blessed be God: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.
Blessed be God's kingdom, now and forever.

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

Hymn 472 'Father of mercy' At 8am, only verses 1 & 4 are sung

The Collect for Purity

Almighty God, to whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hidden: cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy name, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Kyrie eleison said at the 8am service; sung at the 10am service

Lord, have mercy, Lord, have mercy, Lord, have mercy,
Christ, have mercy, Christ, have mercy, Christ, have mercy,
Lord, have mercy, Lord, have mercy, Lord, have mercy.

Confession

Let us confess our sins in penitence and faith, confident in God's forgiveness.

Merciful God, our maker and our judge, we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, and in what we have failed to do: we have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves; we repent, and are sorry for all our sins. Father, forgive us. Strengthen us to love and obey you in newness of life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Absolution pronounced by the celebrant

Gloria in Excelsis said together at 8am, and sung together at 10am

Glory to God in the highest, and peace to God's people on earth. Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory. Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us; you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Collect for The Eighteenth Sunday after Pentecost

The celebrant prays the collect, after which all are seated

The Children's Address

At the 10am service, all children are invited to join together at the chancel step

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

Old Testament Reading Jeremiah 29.1, 4-7

Read at 8am by Keiron Jones; and at 10am read by Doug Harrah

¹These are the words of the letter that the prophet Jeremiah sent from Jerusalem to the remaining elders among the exiles, and to the priests, the prophets, and all the people, whom Nebuchadnezzar had taken into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon. ⁴Thus says the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, to all the exiles whom I have sent into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon: ⁵Build houses and live in them; plant gardens and eat what they produce. ⁶Take wives and have sons and daughters; take wives for your sons, and give your daughters in marriage, that they may bear sons and daughters; multiply there, and do not decrease. ⁷But seek the welfare of the city where I have sent you into exile, and pray to the Lord on its behalf, for in its welfare you will find your welfare.

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Psalter Psalm 66.1-11 said together at 8am, sung by the choir at 10am

¹ O shout with joy to God, all the earth:

sing to the honour of his name,
and give him glory as his praise.

² Say to God 'How fearful are your works:

because of your great might your enemies shall cower before you.'

³ All the earth shall worship you:

and sing to you, and sing praises to your name.

⁴ Come then and see what God has done:

how terrible are his dealings with the children of Adam.

⁵ He turned the sea into dry land,

they crossed the river on foot:

then were we joyful because of him.

⁶ By his power he rules for ever,

his eyes keep watch on the nations:

and rebels shall never rise against him.

⁷ O bless our God, you peoples:

and cause his praises to resound,

⁸ Who has held our souls in life:

who has not suffered our feet to slip.

⁹ For you have proved us, O God:

you have tried us as silver is tried.

¹⁰ You brought us into the net:

you laid sharp torment on our loins.

¹¹ You let our enemies ride over our heads,

we went through fire and water:

but you brought us out into a place of liberty.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

New Testament Reading 2 Timothy 2.8-15

Read at 8am by Ted Mouritz, and at 10am read by Margaret Jones

⁸Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, a descendant of David – that is my gospel, ⁹for which I suffer hardship, even to the point of being chained like a criminal. But the word of God is not chained.

¹⁰Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, so that they may also obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus, with eternal glory.

¹¹The saying is sure: If we have died with him, we will also live with him;

¹²if we endure, we will also reign with him; if we deny him, he will also deny us; ¹³if we are faithless, he remains faithful – for he cannot deny himself. ¹⁴Remind them of this, and warn them before God that they are to avoid wrangling over words, which does no good but only ruins those who are listening. ¹⁵Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved by him, a worker who has no need to be ashamed, rightly explaining the word of truth.

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

At the 10am service please stand for the Gradual Hymn

Gradual Hymn (At 10am only) 220(ii) 'This, this is the God we adore'

At both services we stand and turn to face the Gospel as it is read

The Gospel Luke 17.11-19

The Holy Gospel according to St. Luke, Chapter 17, commencing at verse 11. Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

¹¹On the way to Jerusalem Jesus was going through the region between Samaria and Galilee. ¹²As he entered a village, ten lepers approached him. Keeping their distance, ¹³they called out, saying, 'Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!' ¹⁴When he saw them, he said to them, 'Go and show yourselves to the priests.' And as they went, they were made clean. ¹⁵Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice. ¹⁶He prostrated himself at Jesus' feet and thanked him. And he was a Samaritan. ¹⁷Then Jesus asked, 'Were not ten made clean? But the other nine, where are they?' ¹⁸Was none of them found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?' ¹⁹Then he said to him, 'Get up and go on your way; your faith has made you well.' For the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

The Sermon The Vicar

Anthem (At 10am only) Praise [Let all the World] George Dyson (1883-1964)

Nicene Creed said together, standing

We believe in one God, the Father, the almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one being with the Father; through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary and became truly human. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People kneeling

At 8am led by Keiron Jones and at 10am led by Keith Beecher

The Prayers end with the following

Almighty God, you have promised to hear our prayers.

Grant that what we have asked in faith we may by your grace receive, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Greeting of Peace standing

We are the body of Christ. His Spirit is with us.

The peace of the Lord be always with you. And also with you.

All share with each other the sign of peace, customarily shaking hands with those around them, and saying, 'Peace be with you'

Jesus, redeemer of the world, grant us your peace.

Parish Notices

The Melbourne Anglican

This month's edition of TMA is available for collection in the narthex.

Free Books to Good Home TODAY ONLY!

In the narthex are the last of a few free books that are available for you to take home if you so wish. They are the remnants of the church library, many books of which were generously given to the church over the years. As the library has ceased to function for some years, important volumes and those pertinent to the history of St. John's and the Diocese of Melbourne have been archived.

Electoral Roll Review

The Electoral Roll is being revised in advance of the Annual Meeting in line with this requirement. The review of the roll will be an opportunity for all parishioners to ensure their names appear on the Electoral Roll. Forms for new enrolments are available in the narthex or parish office.

Annual Meeting reports

Those responsible for producing reports please submit them to the Parish Office by 21 October.

Annual Meeting - Sunday 17 November

The Annual Meeting of Parishioners will be held this year on Sunday 17 November at St John's Toorak, at the conclusion of the 10.00am service that day, commencing at approximately 11.30am in the Church.

Prayers for Christian Unity

All Souls Day service

On Thursday 31 October at 7.00pm, the Church remembers all those whom we have loved and have gone to their greater rest in the nearer presence of God. Please join us for this service. If you would like a loved one to be remembered and read out at the service, please complete the remembrance list in the foyer or contact the parish office. You are welcome to bring a framed photo of people you are remembering to be displayed during the worship service.

Save the Date - St. John's 160th Birthday - 24 November, 2019 at 10am

Please save the above date and come to church for a very special occasion when we celebrate our 160th Birthday! Following a celebratory 10am Service, with The Rt. Revd. Peter Hollingworth as guest preacher, the new Parish History will be launched by Professor Geoffrey Blainey. Written by our very own Professor Geoff Quail OAM, this new and very well-written history is a wonderful record of our church. Please save the date!

Guest Preacher Next Week

It will be our pleasure to welcome to St. John's Bron Davis-Jones, Volunteer Supervisor for The Richmond Churches Food Centre. She will be speaking at both services about her work and the support they provide for the vulnerable in our community. The Food Centre is supported by our Op Shop and Trivia Night, as well as by the annual Food for Friends campaign.

The Richmond Churches Food Centre is supported by 5 of the local Richmond Churches, including Catholic, Uniting and Anglican parishes. With a wonderful crew of volunteers they provide food parcels to approximately 400 people per week. They receive food donations from Foodbank, Fare Share and Second Bite plus other generous groups who support them. Bron's responsibilities are vast, including ordering, rostering of volunteers plus the day to day running of the Centre when they give out parcels. She has an extensive background working with disadvantaged people, in remote indigenous communities and specific case work in the Hunter Valley in NSW with people with mental health and addiction issues. This has given her a broad background of experience to be able to support the diverse client base and volunteers. Her organisational and administrative skills come from an early adventure as an Officer in the RAAF, so they run a good but tight ship at the Food Centre! Bron says, "At the Food Centre we provide meaningful conversation and Food Parcels and I am very proud of how we manage this vital work."

Portable ramp

A portable ramp, enabling access up one step, has been donated to St John's. If anyone would like it, please contact the Parish Office.

Nametags

If you would like a church nametag (which very much helps in getting to know everyone's name!), please contact the Church Office on 98261765 during business hours to order one. A $5 donation is requested.

Sermons Available

Audio recordings of recent sermons preached at St. John's are available on our website. Go to www.saintjohnstoorak.org/worship/sermons/

Collection

Please note that the collection taken during the offertory hymn will now start at the back of the nave and move forward towards the sanctuary, rather than from the front to the back as it has in the past. Taking the collection from the back pews to the front pews will be more efficient.
