

ST. JOHN'S ANGLICAN CHURCH
TOORAK
EST. 1859

Third Sunday of Easter

14 April, 2024

10am

Welcome

On behalf of everyone at St. John's, Toorak, a very warm welcome to this church and faith community. St. John's welcomes everyone to all services and events, regardless of age, gender, sexual orientation, race or background. This is a wonderful and historic church, founded in 1859. We are part of the Anglican Church of Australia and a member of the global Anglican Communion, comprised of 80 million people.

Worship

Regular services of worship are held each Sunday at 8am and 10am, and Wednesday at 7pm. All are welcome. Services are followed by times of fellowship over food and drinks to which everyone is also welcome.

Mission

This church actively follows Jesus' command to love God, love one's neighbour and to care for all people. Our clergy and parishioners regularly visit the sick, home-bound, and the dying. We care for the poor and needy through service and charitable giving, through our Opportunity Shop run in partnership with the local Catholic and Uniting churches, and by supporting the work of Anglicare, The Brotherhood of St. Laurence and The Anglican Board of Mission. Our clergy regularly baptise new members of the church, preside at weddings and care for the grieving through our funeral ministry.

Visitors

If you're visiting for the first time please introduce yourself to a welcomer or member of the clergy, and fill out the blue 'Welcome' card found at the end of every pew so we can stay in touch with you.

The Church

The church is decorated in white symbolising purity, grace, and, ultimately, the resurrection of Jesus Christ, which is the joyful culmination of the Easter season.

Charles Hubert Hastings Parry (1848-1918)

THE INVOCATION

Blessed be God: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

Blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever.

GREETING

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

HYMN 'Now the green blade rises'

Em A Em Am Bm Em
Em A Em Am Bm Em
Em B Em B
Em A Em Am B7 Em

1. Now the green blade rises from the buried grain, wheat that in the dark earth
many days has lain:
love lives again,
that with the dead has been:

*Love has come again,
like wheat that springs up green.*

2. In the grave they laid him,
Love whom hate had slain, thinking that he never would awake again,
laid in the earth,
like grain that sleeps unseen.
Love has come again, ...

3. Up he sprang at Easter,
like the risen grain,
he who for the three days
in the grave had lain, raised from the dead
my living Lord is seen:
Love has come again, ...

4. When our hearts are wintry,
grieving, or in pain,
then your touch can call us back to life again – fields of our hearts that dead and bare have been:
Love has come again, ...

COLLECT FOR PURITY

Almighty God, to whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hidden: cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy name, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE TWO GREAT COMMANDMENTS

'Hear, O Israel, the Lord your God, the Lord is one; you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength.' Jesus said: 'This is the great and first commandment. And a second is like it: you shall love your neighbour as yourself.'

CONFESSION

Christ our Passover Lamb has been offered for us, therefore we come to celebrate the festival. Let us confess our sins in penitence and faith, with a sincere and a true heart.

Merciful God, our maker and our judge, we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, and in what we have failed to do: we have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves; we repent, and are sorry for all our sins. Father, forgive us. Strengthen us to love and obey you in newness of life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

COLLECT FOR THE SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER

Lord of life, by submitting to death, you conquered the grave; by being lifted upon the cross, you draw all peoples to you; by being raised from the dead, you restore to humanity all that was lost through sin: be with us in your risen power, that in word and deed we may proclaim the marvellous mystery of death and resurrection. For all praise is yours, now and throughout eternity. Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

THE FIRST READING Acts 3.12-20 read by Marinella Milne

When Peter saw it, he addressed the people, 'You Israelites, why do you wonder at this, or why do you stare at us, as though by our own power or piety we had made him walk? The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, the God of our ancestors has glorified his servant Jesus, whom you handed over and rejected in the presence of Pilate, though he had decided to release him. But you rejected the Holy and Righteous One and asked to have a murderer given to you, and you killed the Author of life, whom God raised from the dead. To this we are witnesses. And by faith in his name, his name itself has made this man strong, whom you see and know; and the faith that is through Jesus has given him this perfect health in the presence of all of you. 'And now, friends, I know that you acted in ignorance, as did your rulers. In this way God fulfilled what he had foretold through all the prophets, that his Messiah would suffer. Repent therefore, and turn to God so that your sins may be wiped out, so that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord, and that he may send the Messiah appointed for you, that is, Jesus.

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

THE PSALM Psalm 4 sung by the choir

Answer me when I call, O God of my righteousness:

when I was hard-pressed you set me free;

be gracious to me now and hear my prayer.

Children of earth, how long will you turn my glory to my shame:

how long will you love what is worthless and seek after lies?

Know that the Lord has shown me his wonderful kindness:

when I call to the Lord he will hear me.

Tremble, and do no sin:

commune with your own heart upon your bed and be still.

Offer the sacrifices that are right:

and put your trust in the Lord.

There are many who say 'Who will show us any good?:

the light of your countenance, O Lord, has gone from us.'

Yet you have given my heart more gladness:
that they have when their corn, wine and oil increase.

In peace I will lie down and sleep:

for you alone, Lord, make me dwell in safety.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

THE SECOND READING 1 John 2.15-17; 3.1-6 read by Keith Beecher

Do not love the world or the things in the world. The love of the Father is not in those who love the world; for all that is in the world – the desire of the flesh, the desire of the eyes, the pride in riches – comes not from the Father but from the world. And the world and its desire are passing away, but those who do the will of God live for ever. See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure. Everyone who commits sin is guilty of lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. You know that he was revealed to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. No one who abides in him sins; no one who sins has either seen him or known him.

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

THE GRADUAL HYMN 'At the dawning of salvation' please stand and sing

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1. At the dawning of salvation;
in the morning of the world,
Christ is raised, a living banner
by the love of God unfurled, Through the daylight, through the darkness,
Christ leads on his great array:
all the saints and all the sinners
he has gathered on his way. | 3. For the glory of salvation in the dawn of Easter day
we will praise you, loving Father;
we rejoice to sing and pray
with the Son and with the Spirit.
Lead us on, your great array, saints and sinners celebrating
your triumphant love today. |
|--|--|
2. He is risen in the morning,
he is risen from the dead;
he is laughter after sadness,
he is light when night has fled.
He has suffered, he has triumphed, life is his alone to give:
as he gave it once he gives it evermore, that we may live.

THE GOSPEL Luke 24.36b-48

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to St. Luke.
Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

While they were talking about this, Jesus himself stood among them and said to them, 'Peace be with you.' They were startled and terrified, and thought that they were seeing a ghost. He said to them, 'Why are you frightened, and why do doubts arise in your hearts? Look at my hands and my feet; see that it is I myself. Touch me and see; for a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you see that I have.'

And when he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. While in their joy they were disbelieving and still wondering, he said to them, 'Have you anything here to eat?' They gave him a piece of broiled fish, and he took it and ate in their presence. Then he said to them, 'These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you – that everything written about me in the law of Moses, the prophets, and the psalms must be fulfilled.' Then he opened their minds to understand the scriptures, and he said to them, 'Thus it is written, that the Messiah is to suffer and to rise from the dead on the third day, and that repentance and forgiveness of sins is to be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things.

For the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

THE SERMON The Assistant Curate, The Revd Lydia Thangadurai

ANTHEM O for a closer walk with God
Charles Villiers Stanford (1852-1924)

THE NICENE CREED said together, standing

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one being with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary, and became truly human. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified, who has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE led by Anthony Mannering

The Prayers end with the following

Almighty God, you have promised to hear our prayers. Grant that what we have asked in faith, we may by your grace receive, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

SCRIPTURE COMMENTARY

Acts 3:12-19

Peter and John, observant Jews, have gone to the Temple at the time of day when sacrifice was offered with prayer. At the gate to the temple courtyard they have seen a man lame from birth, forced to beg in order to survive. Peter has commanded him: "in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, stand up and walk" (v. 6). After helping him to his feet, the man has entered the temple precincts with them, "walking and leaping and praising God" (v. 8). "While he clung to Peter and John, all the people ran together to them" (v. 11).

Now Peter preaches to the crowd. It is not by their own power or devotion ("piety", v. 12) that the man walks, but rather by God's power, through Christ. Peter speaks as a Jew, to his own people: the titles of God in v. 13 are those by which God identifies himself to Moses in the burning bush (Exodus 3:6). God has "glorified" (v. 13, exalted, lifted up) Jesus. Glorification stands in contrast to the actions of the unthinking mob, who "handed [him] over and rejected [him]". "Holy and Righteous One" (v. 14) are messianic titles; the "murderer" is Barabbas. Jesus is "the Author of life" (v. 15), the pioneer or founder of a new order, an order open to all. The healing occurred due to faith in God's authority, "his name" (v. 16), through Christ, God's agent. Vv. 17-26 are an appeal to Israel to repent and be converted. The mob and the Jewish authorities, Peter says, "acted in ignorance" (v. 17): this is how part of God's plan was accomplished. "The prophets" (v. 18), as a body - Isaiah in particular - predicted that "his Messiah would suffer" (v. 18). But there is a second chance for Israel: "repent" (v. 19) and be converted, "turn to God" and God will wipe out their sins.

In the NRSV, v. 19 begins a sentence; it continues: so that you may enjoy "times of refreshing" (v. 20) when Christ comes again at the end of the era, at "the time of universal restoration" (v. 21). Christ is the prophet Moses said God would "raise up" (v. 22); those who do not listen to him will be condemned (Deuteronomy 18:19, Leviticus 23:29). Peter reminds his audience of God's promise to Abraham: "in your descendants all the families of the earth shall be blessed" (v. 25). His words are like Genesis 22:18.

Psalm 4

The psalmist calls on God, knowing that God is on his side ("of my right"). God has helped him in the past; may he hear his plea now. The psalmist addresses his foes in v. 2: how long will you slander me? You need to realize that God considers me ("the faithful", v. 3) to be his, so he will respond to my prayer - so beware! Angry ("disturbed", v. 4) as you are, seek inner quiet through silent meditation. Further, offer the "sacrifices" (v. 5) demanded by the Law ("right") and trust in God. Others seek what is "good" (v. 6); I pray that God may favour them. I know that inner joy, given by God, which I have received, is much more valuable (v. 7). So as I go to sleep, I rest assured of God's peace and protection (v. 8).

1 John 3:1-7

The author emphasises that through our kinship with Christ, son of God, we can “be called children of God”, a status we enjoy because of God’s gift of love: his gift of his only Son as Saviour of the world. We have this status now (“that is what we are”). Then v. 1b: most people did not listen to and understand Jesus (“did not know him”), so it is to be expected that few will listen to us, his emissaries. Then v. 2: being his children is happening now, and will be at the end of time, but we have not been shown in what way this will be; however, we do know that we will be like Christ: we will see the Father fully, in all his glory. “All who have this hope” (v. 3) in Christ, this expectation of the future – i.e. Christians – consider it required of them to live a virtuous, ethical, life (“purify themselves”), emulating the essential goodness, purity, of God.

In 2:1-2, the author says that he is writing “so that you may not sin”, but should anyone sin, Christ will defend us. Then in 2:3, he says that we know Christ “if we obey his commandments”, i.e. if we walk in God’s ways, his laws. There are dissenters from the true faith, who are spoken of, in v. 4, as lawless: they habitually deviate from God’s ways, persist in doing evil. In 1:8, the author says “If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves ...”: so sin is possible for Christians. When we do sin, we weaken our bond with God, the very bond which gives meaning and reality to being Christian (v. 6). The dissidents may claim that all that matters is a godly attitude, but being “righteous” (v. 7, godly) requires actions as well. Jesus is our example.

Luke 24:36b-48

Jesus has appeared to two disciples on the road to Emmaus, and has shared bread with them (vv. 13-32). Upon returning to Jerusalem, they have heard from “the eleven and their companions” (v. 33) that Jesus has also appeared to Peter. “Peace” (v. 36), proclaimed by the angel at Jesus’ birth, (in 2:14) is now his gift to the disciples. When the group think they are seeing a ghost (v. 37), Jesus asks them: why do you have trouble in believing that it is me, risen from death? (v. 38) He invites them to “touch me and see” (v. 39), to understand. Realizing that he is risen, their joy is so great as to leap beyond belief (v. 41). They give him “broiled fish” (v. 42), a Galilean dish. Eating shows that he is not a ghost: he is bodily resurrected. Times have changed, as “while I was still with you” (v. 44) shows. He tells them that he fulfils the whole of the Old Testament (to Jews divided into “the law ... the prophets, and the psalms” or Writings), and explains the scriptures to them (v. 45). The quotation in vv. 46-47 combines verses from the Old Testament and apocryphal books. He commissions the Church: with faith in his divinity (“in his name”, v. 47) “repentance and forgiveness ... is to be proclaimed ... to all nations”; the Church is his agent.

ART COMMENTARY

The Maestà, or Maestà of Duccio, is an altarpiece composed of many individual paintings commissioned from the artist Duccio di Buoninsegna by the city of Siena in 1308, and is his most famous work. The monumental Maestà was a two-sided altarpiece that dominated the main altar in Siena's cathedral for nearly two centuries. Within the vast black-and-white striped interior of the church, it would have glittered in the coloured light that washed down through stained glass. Completed in less than three years, the Maestà was a huge undertaking, for which Duccio received 3,000 gold florins – more than any artist had ever commanded. Although he must have had substantial help from his pupils and workshop assistants, the design and execution indicates that Duccio exercised control over the whole project. Moved to a side altar in 1506, the altarpiece was sawn apart in the 1770s and individual panels subsequently dispersed. This makes it impossible to determine its dimensions with certainty, but it must have been about 15 feet wide, with the gables rising to as much as 17 feet high. In all, there were probably more than 70 individual scenes

In the painting, Appearance to the Apostles, Jesus appears to the eleven remaining followers. He confronts them with their incredulity: they had not believed reports on his resurrection. On the table are fish and honeycombs, like Luke wrote in his gospel. This panel is one of the back crowning panels of Duccio's Maestà.

MUSIC COMMENTARY

Prelude: Tranquilly - Charles Hubert Hastings Parry (1848-1918)

As a composer Parry is best known for the choral song "Jerusalem", the coronation anthem "I was glad" and the hymn tune "Repton", which sets the words "Dear Lord and Father of Mankind". He was director of the Royal College of Music from 1895 until his death and was also professor of music at the University of Oxford from 1900 to 1908. He also wrote several books about music and music history. Some contemporaries rated him as the finest English composer since Henry Purcell, but his academic duties prevented him from devoting all his energies to composition.

Postlude: No. 5 of Six Short Preludes and Postludes, Op. 101, Set 1
(founded on an old Irish church melody) - Charles Villiers Stanford (1852-1924)

Stanford was one of the leading musicians of his generation and had a profound effect on the development and history of English music as a performer, conductor, composer, teacher and writer. He was appointed Professor of Composition at the Royal College of Music in London in 1883 (a position that he held for more than forty years) and Professor of Music at Cambridge in 1888. He subsequently held appointments as Conductor of the Bach Choir in London, the Leeds Philharmonic Society and the Leeds Festival. Stanford was a prolific composer, completing seven symphonies, eight string quartets, nine operas, more than 300 songs, 30 large scale choral works and a large body of chamber music. He also composed a substantial number of works for the organ, as well as anthems and settings of the canticles for the Anglican Church. He wrote extensively on music including three volumes of memoirs and a popular text on composition.
