

ST. JOHN'S ANGLICAN CHURCH
TOORAK
EST. 1859

SCHEDULE OF FUNERAL FEES 2024

Standard fee Funeral or Memorial service in St John's church	The standard funeral fee is normally paid to St John's direct by the funeral director and includes all of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>✦ The priest who will be celebrant</li><li>✦ Provision of a professional musician (organist) to play at the service</li><li>✦ Support of the parish staff to assist in producing an order of service, advice and direction regarding music, and all other elements of the service</li><li>✦ Note: flowers are not provided and need to be organised by the funeral directors or family.</li></ul>	$2,050
Attendance at the Committal (optional)	This further fee applies where the priest who will be celebrant is required to travel to a prior or subsequent service for the committal; typically this will be at the graveside or crematorium.	$300
Soloist / St. John's choir (optional)	St John's has an excellent choir, and qualified soloists, available to lead the singing of hymns and to perform anthems and other musical items, in consultation with the Director of Music.	$250 plus super per singer
Interment of Ashes (optional)	Following a cremation, the cremated remains may be interred in St John's memorial garden.	$300
Book of Memory (optional)	A page may be entered onto the Book of Memory located in the church (the page is displayed on the anniversary of death each year).	$300
Buxton Hall (optional)	The beautifully appointed and decorated Buxton Hall, located on site at St John's, is an ideal venue for the wake and for refreshments after the service; the flat rate provides for two hours' use, including use of trestle tables, and chairs. Please provide your own caterer.	$500 plus GST