

ST. JOHN'S ANGLICAN CHURCH
TOORAK
EST. 1859

Seventh Sunday after Pentecost

7 July, 2024

8am

Welcome

On behalf of everyone at St. John's, Toorak, a very warm welcome to this church and faith community. St. John's welcomes everyone to all services and events, regardless of age, gender, sexual orientation, race or background. This is a wonderful and historic church, founded in 1859. We are part of the Anglican Church of Australia and a member of the global Anglican Communion, comprised of 80 million people.

Worship

Regular services of worship are held each Sunday at 8am and 10am, and Wednesday at 7pm. All are welcome. Services are followed by times of fellowship over food and drinks to which everyone is also welcome.

Mission

This church actively follows Jesus' command to love God, love one's neighbour and to care for all people. Our clergy and parishioners regularly visit the sick, home-bound, and the dying. We care for the poor and needy through service and charitable giving, through our Opportunity Shop run in partnership with the local Catholic and Uniting churches, and by supporting the work of Anglicare, The Brotherhood of St. Laurence and The Anglican Board of Mission. Our clergy regularly baptise new members of the church, preside at weddings and care for the grieving through our funeral ministry.

Visitors

If you're visiting for the first time please introduce yourself to a welcomer or member of the clergy, and fill out the blue 'Welcome' card found at the end of every pew so we can stay in touch with you.

The Church

The church is decorated in green, the liturgical colour of the season of Pentecost.

COLLECT FOR PURITY

Almighty God, to whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hidden: cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy name, through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

THE TWO GREAT COMMANDMENTS

'Hear, O Israel, the Lord your God, the Lord is one; you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength.' Jesus said: 'This is the great and first commandment. And a second is like it: you shall love your neighbour as yourself.'

KYRIE ELEISON said

Lord, have mercy, Lord have mercy.
Christ, have mercy, Christ, have mercy.
Lord, have mercy, Lord have mercy.

CONFESSION

Let us confess our sins in penitence and faith, confident in God's forgiveness.

Merciful God, our maker and our judge, we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, and in what we have failed to do: we have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves; we repent, and are sorry for all our sins. Father, forgive us. Strengthen us to love and obey you in newness of life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ABSOLUTION

GLORIA IN EXCELSIS said

Glory to God in the highest, and peace to God's people on earth. Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory. Lord Jesus Christ, only son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us; you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the Glory of God the Father. Amen.

COLLECT FOR THE SEVENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

O Lord our God, you are always more ready to bestow your good gifts upon us than we are to seek them; and more willing to give than we desire or deserve: in our every need, grant us the first and best of all your gifts, the Spirit who makes us your children.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God for ever and ever. Amen.

Please be seated

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

THE FIRST READING 2 Samuel 5.1-5, 5.9-10 read by Vivienne Randall

Then all the tribes of Israel came to David at Hebron, and said, 'Look, we are your bone and flesh. For some time, while Saul was king over us, it was you who led out Israel and brought it in. The Lord said to you: It is you who shall be shepherd of my people Israel, you who shall be ruler over Israel.' So all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron; and King David made a covenant with them at Hebron before the Lord, and they anointed David king over Israel. David was thirty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned for forty years. At Hebron he reigned over Judah for seven years and six months; and at Jerusalem he reigned over all Israel and Judah for thirty-three years. David occupied the stronghold, and named it the city of David. David built the city all around from the Millo inwards. And David became greater and greater, for the Lord, the God of hosts, was with him.

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

THE PSALM Psalm 48 said

Great is the Lord and greatly to be praised:
in the city of our God.

High and beautiful is his holy hill:
it is the joy of all the earth.

On Mount Zion, where godhead truly dwells, stands the city of the Great King:

God is well known in her palaces as a sure defence.

For the kings of the earth assembled:

they gathered together and came on;

They saw, they were struck dumb:

they were astonished and fled in terror.

Trembling took hold on them, and anguish:

as on a woman in her travail;

Like the breath of the east wind:
that shatters the ships of Tarshish.
As we have heard, so have we seen in the city of the Lord of hosts:
in the city of our God,
which God has established for ever.
We have called to mind your loving-kindness, O God:
in the midst of your temple.
As your name is great, O God, so also is your praise:
even to the ends of the earth.
Your right hand is full of victory
— let Zion's hill rejoice:
let the daughters of Judah be glad,
because of your judgements.
Walk about Zion, go round about her,
and count all her towers:
consider well her ramparts, pass through her palaces;
That you may tell those who come after that such is God:
our God for ever and ever, and he will guide us eternally.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

THE SECOND READING 2 Corinthians 12.2-10 read by Brenda Mouritz

I know a person in Christ who fourteen years ago was caught up to the third heaven — whether in the body or out of the body I do not know; God knows. And I know that such a person — whether in the body or out of the body I do not know; God knows — was caught up into Paradise and heard things that are not to be told, that no mortal is permitted to repeat. On behalf of such a one I will boast, but on my own behalf I will not boast, except of my weaknesses. But if I wish to boast, I will not be a fool, for I will be speaking the truth. But I refrain from it, so that no one may think better of me than what is seen in me or heard from me, even considering the exceptional character of the revelations. Therefore, to keep me from being too elated, a thorn was given to me in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to torment me, to keep me from being too elated. Three times I appealed to the Lord about this, that it would leave me, but he said to me, 'My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness.'

So, I will boast all the more gladly of my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may dwell in me. Therefore I am content with weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions, and calamities for the sake of Christ; for whenever I am weak, then I am strong.

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Please stand for the reading of the Gospel

THE GOSPEL Mark 6.1-13

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to St. Mark.
Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

He left that place and came to his home town, and his disciples followed him. On the sabbath he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were astounded. They said, 'Where did this man get all this? What is this wisdom that has been given to him? What deeds of power are being done by his hands! Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary and brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon, and are not his sisters here with us?' And they took offence at him. Then Jesus said to them, 'Prophets are not without honour, except in their home town, and among their own kin, and in their own house.' And he could do no deed of power there, except that he laid his hands on a few sick people and cured them. And he was amazed at their unbelief. Then he went about among the villages teaching. He called the twelve and began to send them out two by two, and gave them authority over the unclean spirits. He ordered them to take nothing for their journey except a staff; no bread, no bag, no money in their belts; but to wear sandals and not to put on two tunics. He said to them, 'Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave the place. If any place will not welcome you and they refuse to hear you, as you leave, shake off the dust that is on your feet as a testimony against them.' So they went out and proclaimed that all should repent. They cast out many demons, and anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them.

For the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

THE SERMON The Assistant Priest, The Revd Dr Wendy Crouch

THE NICENE CREED said together, standing

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one being with the Father; through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary, and became truly human. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified, who has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE led by Vivienne Randall

2 Samuel 5:1-5,9-10

David has settled at Hebron (see 2:3). He is publicly anointed to rule over Judah by the council of tribal heads. Meanwhile, in the north, Abner, once Saul's military commander, makes Ishbaal, Saul's son, puppet king over the northern tribes (see 2:8). Both tribal coalitions plan to annex Gibeon, northwest of Jerusalem. They try to settle the dispute by a tournament, but when this attempt fails, they go to war: David's troops win. Abner, recognizing a lost cause, switches to David's side (see 3:1-10). Abner is killed (see 3:22-29); Ishbaal's courage fails and he is murdered by two of his own, who are then killed on David's orders, for killing "a righteous man" (4:11). David has Abner and Ishbaal buried at Hebron, thus showing them respect.

Now, there being no acceptable successor to Saul, the "tribes of Israel" (v. 1), the north, seek David's consent to becoming their king too. He has a right to be king for he is an Israelite and was army commander under Saul (v. 2). The council of the north ("elders of Israel", v. 3) anoint him king over them too; the states are thus joined in one person. David now conquers a city belonging to neither, and makes it a neutral capital. (The "Jebusites", v. 6, are local Canaanites.) The defenders scoff at David's attempt at conquest: even the "blind and the lame" will be his match, but David's army prevails: Canaanite power is removed; Jerusalem becomes "the city of David" (v. 9). Per this story, the troops appear to enter via the "water shaft" (v. 8), the tunnel through the walls to the water spring. David's hatred for the "lame ...", is cited as the cause of their exclusion from the Temple: clearly a later addition in line with Leviticus 21:17-23. The "Millo" (v. 9) is probably the earthwork to the north of the city. David has increased in power with the help of God, the deity common to north and south.

Psalms 48

The psalm celebrates the beauty and security of Jerusalem, partly built on Mount Zion. God is to be praised as her god. She is the "joy" (v. 2) of all people. God is the "great King"; he defends her (v. 3a); he is her "sure defence". When kings unite in attacking her (v. 4), the very sight of her stops them in their tracks (v. 5); their armies are scattered like sea-going ships when hit by a storm ("east wind", v. 7) and retreat and shake ("trembling", v. 6) with pain, like "a woman in labour". V. 8 is Israel's reaction. Yet Jerusalem is a joy to pilgrims who consider God's gift of love when worshipping in the Temple (v. 9). God shows himself to all; his power ("right hand", v. 10) is just, both to enemies and pilgrims; may we rejoice in his decisions. Let us process around the city and her defences, both physical and divine (v. 12); may future generations (v. 13) hear this: God is the source of her strength and "our guide" (v. 14) forever.

2 Corinthians 12:2-10

Paul continues to rebut his critics. In 11:21b-33, he has answered them on loyalty to his Jewish heritage, and his achievements and suffering for Christ. They appear to claim superiority to him in another area: visions and revelations. He has said: "If I must boast, I will boast of the things that show my weakness" (11:30) and "It is necessary to boast; nothing is to be gained by it, but I will go on to visions and revelations of the Lord" (12:1).

Now in v. 2, in humility, he speaks as though someone else had a vision: "a person in Christ", (but see v. 7, "me"). It really did happen: "fourteen years ago" I had a mystical experience which is undescrivable ("in the body ...", v. 3). (God lives in "the third heaven", v. 2, or "Paradise", v. 4.) What I heard was like what members of Greek cults must not reveal ("things ..."). I really do have grounds for boasting, but I will not explain, lest anyone have too exalted an idea of me (v. 6). A "thorn ... in the flesh" (v. 7) keeps me from "being too elated": a chronic condition, a physical or mental disability, a recurring illness – or opposition of one or more people. ("Satan" was thought responsible for disease as well as sin.) At one time, I repeatedly "appealed to the Lord" (v. 8) but he said: the affliction will not be removed, for the power of God is more apparent when it works through a sufferer (v. 9). "So, I will boast ... of my weaknesses" so that the Holy Spirit, "the power of Christ", may be in me and work through me. So I accept my condition as it is, "for the sake of Christ" (v. 10), for when I feel weak, I am most effectively showing God's power. I have been forced to use the tactics of my critics, i.e. boasting (v. 11). He has shown himself to be a "true apostle" (v. 12).

Mark 6:1-13

Mark has told us of Jesus' success with the crowds. They have listened to the word expressed in parables; they have seen him heal the sick. He has commissioned and instructed the twelve, showing them that he has power over nature, sickness and even death. Now Jesus leaves the "place" where he has healed the woman and Jairus' daughter, and comes to his "hometown" in Galilee, with those who trust in him. His reception in the synagogue is different from that in 1:21-28; they now ask: Who is this guy? How can a mere carpenter be so wise? It doesn't add up: how can he possibly do supernatural deeds? "They took offence at him" (v. 3): the rejection begins. (The word translated offence also means stumbling block.) Jesus rebuts: Israel has often rejected prophets who came to save her. Because the people of his "hometown" lack faith, he does few miracles there (v. 5). Perhaps as a result of rejection at home, Jesus concentrates on rural areas. He sends out "the twelve" (v. 7) to minister, to extend his proclaiming of God's Kingdom in word and action; they too will heal, mostly by exorcism ("unclean spirits"). His orders to them (vv. 8-9) are set in first-century Palestine; because of the urgency of the mission and the need to trust in God, they are to subordinate material and physical concerns to the task of preaching, as he does. They are not to waste time seeking better accommodation (v. 10); nor on those who refuse to listen: just move on (v. 11). They are to do what Jesus has begun (v. 12).

MUSIC COMMENTARY

---

Prelude: Trio No. 10 from 10 Organ Trios, Op. 49

J.G. Rheinberger

Josef Rheinberger was a German composer and organist born on March 17, 1839, in Vaduz, Liechtenstein. He gained recognition for his prolific output of choral, organ, and chamber music compositions during the Romantic era. Rheinberger held prominent positions as a teacher at the Munich Conservatory and was a notable figure in the musical scene of his time.

Communion: Communion (No. 1), Op. 15      Alexandre Guilmant (1837-1911)

Guilmant was the organist of La Trinité from 1871 to 1901, and was a noted pedagogue, performer, and improviser who helped found the Schola Cantorum de Paris. He was well known as an improviser, both in the concert and church setting, and a lot of his inspiration came from Gregorian chants.

Postlude: Eternal source of light divine

G.F. Handel (1685-1759)

from Ode for the Birthday of Queen Anne (HWV 74)

Ode for the Birthday of Queen Anne was a secular cantata composed in 1713 to a libretto by Ambrose Philips. It celebrates Queen Anne's birthday and the accomplishment of the Treaty of Utrecht to end the War of the Spanish Succession. Queen Anne was said by the Duke of Manchester to be "too careless or too busy to listen to her own band, and had no thought of hearing and paying new players, however great their genius or vast their skill." Nevertheless, and whether or not she ever heard this ode for her birthday, she granted Handel a "pension" (subsidy for living expenses) of two hundred pounds a year, for life.

ART COMMENTARY

Johann Heinrich Ferdinand Olivier (1785-1841) was a German painter associated with the Nazarene movement. His father, a teacher and philanthropist, would have preferred to keep his son as an associate, and did not permit him to devote himself to art until 1804. During that year he went to Dresden with his elder brother Heinrich, where they became pupils of the landscape artist Jakob-Wilhelm Mechau. In Dresden they came into contact with members of the German Romantic movement, including Caspar David Friedrich. In 1811 Olivier settled in Vienna. There he developed a friendship with Joseph Anton Koch, and joined the group of painters known as the Nazarenes. The label Nazarene was adopted by a group of early 19th-century German Romantic painters who aimed to revive spirituality in art. The name Nazarene came from a term of derision used against them for their affectation of a biblical manner of clothing and hair style. The Nazarenes believed that all art should serve a moral or religious purpose, and they admired painters of the late Middle Ages and early Renaissance. This sentiment is reflected in the artwork on today's pewsheet, Jesus mit seinen Jüngern (Jesus with Disciples).
