

ST. JOHN'S ANGLICAN CHURCH
TOORAK
EST. 1859

All Saints' Day
2 November, 2025
10am

Welcome

St. John's welcomes everyone to all services and events, regardless of age, gender, sexual orientation, race or background. This is a wonderful and historic church, founded in 1859. We are part of the Anglican Church of Australia and a member of the global Anglican Communion, comprised of 80 million people.

Worship

Regular services of worship are held each Sunday at 8am and 10am, and Wednesday at 7pm. Services are followed by times of fellowship over food and drinks. All are welcome.

Mission

Our mission is to know and love Christ and neighbour. We actively follow Jesus' command to love God, love one's neighbour and to care for all people. We regularly visit the sick, home-bound, and the dying. We care for the poor and needy through service and charitable giving, through our Opportunity Shop run in partnership with the local Catholic and Uniting Churches, and by supporting the work of Anglicare, The Brotherhood of St. Laurence and The Anglican Board of Mission. Our clergy regularly baptise new members of the church, preside at weddings and care for the grieving through our funeral ministry.

Visitors

If you're visiting for the first time please introduce yourself to a welcomer or member of the clergy, and fill out the blue 'Welcome' card found at the end of every pew so we can stay in touch with you.

The Church

The church is decorated in white symbolising purity, grace, and, ultimately, the resurrection of Jesus Christ. White is also used for 'feast' days and festivals such as All Saints Day.

1. Ye watchers and ye holy ones, bright seraphs, cherubim and thrones,
raise the glad strain: alleluia!
Cry out, dominions, principedoms,
powers,
virtues, archangels, angels' choirs:
alleluia!

2. O higher than the cherubim, more glorious than the seraphim,
lead their praises: alleluia!
Thou bearer of the Eternal Word,
most gracious, magnify the Lord,
alleluia!

3. Respond, ye souls in endless rest, ye patriarchs and prophets blest:
alleluia, alleluia!
Ye holy twelve, ye martyrs strong,
all saints triumphant, raise the song,
alleluia!

4. O friends, in gladness let us sing, supernal anthems echoing:
alleluia, alleluia!
To God the Father, God the Son,
and God the Spirit, Three in One,
alleluia!

COLLECT FOR PURITY

Almighty God, to whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hidden: cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy name, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE TWO GREAT COMMANDMENTS

‘Hear, O Israel, the Lord your God, the Lord is one; you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength.’ Jesus said: ‘This is the great and first commandment. And a second is like it: you shall love your neighbour as yourself.’

CONFESSION

We are surrounded by a great cloud of witnesses.

Silence is kept

Let us then run our race, laying aside every weight and bringing our sins to the Lord in penitence and faith.

Merciful God, our maker and our judge, we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, and in what we have failed to do: we have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves; we repent, and are sorry for all our sins. Father, forgive us. Strengthen us to love and obey you in newness of life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

COLLECT FOR ALL SAINTS DAY

We praise you, heavenly Father, that you have knit together your chosen ones in one communion and fellowship in the body of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord: give us grace so to follow your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living that we may come to those inexpressible joys you have prepared for those who truly love you; through Jesus Christ our Saviour, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

THE FIRST READING Daniel 7.1-3, 15-18 read by Alicia Groves

In the first year of King Belshazzar of Babylon, Daniel had a dream and visions of his head as he lay in bed. Then he wrote down the dream: I, Daniel, saw in my vision by night the four winds of heaven stirring up the great sea, and four great beasts came up out of the sea, different from one another. As for me, Daniel, my spirit was troubled within me, and the visions of my head terrified me. I approached one of the attendants to ask him the truth concerning all this. So he said that he would disclose to me the interpretation of the matter: 'As for these four great beasts, four kings shall arise out of the earth. But the holy ones of the Most High shall receive the kingdom and possess the kingdom for ever – for ever and ever.'

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

THE PSALM Psalm 149 sung by the choir

O praise the Lord, and sing to the Lord a new song:

O praise him in the assembly of the faithful.

Let Israel rejoice in him that made him:

let the children of Zion be joyful in their king.

Let them praise him in the dance:

let them sing his praise with timbrel and with harp.

For the Lord takes delight in his people:

he adorns the meek with his salvation.

Let his faithful ones exult in his glory:

let them sing for joy upon their beds.

Let the high praises of God be in their mouths:

and a two-edged sword in their hands,

To execute vengeance on the nations:

and chastisement upon the peoples,

To bind their kings in chains:

and their nobles with fetters of iron,

To visit upon them the judgement that is decreed:

such honour belongs to all his faithful servants.

Praise the Lord.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

THE SECOND READING Ephesians 1.11-23 read by Keith Beecher

In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; this is the pledge of our inheritance towards redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his glory. I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love towards all the saints, and for this reason I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers. I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him, so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe, according to the working of his great power. God put this power to work in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the age to come. And he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Please stand to sing the Gradual Hymn

THE GRADUAL HYMN 'Blessed be the everlasting God'

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1. Blessed be the everlasting God,
the Father of our Lord,
be his abounding mercy praised,
his majesty adored. | 3. There's an inheritance divine reserved against that day,
that's uncorrupted, undefiled,
and cannot waste away. |
| 2. When from the dead he raised his Son,
to reign with him on high,
he gave our souls a lively hope that they should never die. | 4. Saints by the power of God are kept till the salvation come;
we walk by faith as strangers here
till Christ shall call us home. |

BISHOPTHORPE (Tis 114)

Please remain standing for the reading of the Gospel, turning to face it as it is read

THE GOSPEL Luke 6.20-31

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to St Luke.
Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Then he looked up at his disciples and said: 'Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the kingdom of God. 'Blessed are you who are hungry now, for you will be filled. 'Blessed are you who weep now, for you will laugh. 'Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude you, revile you, and defame you on account of the Son of Man. Rejoice on that day and leap for joy, for surely your reward is great in heaven; for that is what their ancestors did to the prophets. 'But woe to you who are rich, for you have received your consolation. 'Woe to you who are full now, for you will be hungry. 'Woe to you who are laughing now, for you will mourn and weep. 'Woe to you when all speak well of you, for that is what their ancestors did to the false prophets. 'But I say to you that listen, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. If anyone strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also; and from anyone who takes away your coat do not withhold even your shirt. Give to everyone who begs from you; and if anyone takes away your goods, do not ask for them again. Do to others as you would have them do to you.'

For the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

THE SERMON The Assistant Priest, The Revd Dr Wendy Crouch

THE ANTHEM 'Holy is the true light'

William H. Harris (1883-1973)

THE NICENE CREED said together, standing

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one being with the Father; through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary, and became truly human. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified, who has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE led by Keith Beecher

The Prayers end with the following

Almighty God, you have promised to hear our prayers.

Grant that what we have asked in faith, we may by your grace receive, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

1. Your hand, O God, has guided your flock from age to age;
the wondrous tale is written,
full clear, on every page;
your people owned your goodness,
and we their deeds record;
and both of this bear witness:
one church, one faith, one Lord.

2. Your heralds brought glad tidings to greatest, as to least;
they bade them rise, and hasten
to share the great King's feast;
and this was all their teaching,
in every deed and word,
to all alike proclaiming
one church, one faith, one Lord.

3. Through many a day of darkness, through many a scene of strife,
the faithful few fought bravely to guard the nation's life.
Their gospel of redemption,
sin pardoned, earth restored,
was all in this enfolded:
one church, one faith, one Lord.

4. Your mercy will not fail us, nor leave your work undone;
with your right hand to help us,
the victory shall be won;
and then by all creation,
your name shall be adored,
and this shall be our anthem:
one church, one faith, one Lord.

In front of the lectern our ecumenical candle is lit. This is the candle which moves from each member church of the Toorak Ecumenical Movement, the Catholic, Swedish, Anglican and Uniting Churches, to symbolise our unity in Christ. The word 'ecumenical' comes from the ancient Greek word 'oikumene,' meaning 'the whole (inhabited) earth,' and simply means churches who come together to better understand each other and to live into Christ's call for all his followers 'to be one.' St. John's has been a proud member of the Toorak Ecumenical Movement for all its 43 years of existence.

SCRIPTURE COMMENTARY

Daniel 7:1-3,15-18

The book is set in the days of the exile in Babylon. Daniel is a famous character from that time; according to Ezekiel, he was renowned for his piety and wisdom. The book was written about 165 BC, in Daniel's name, to give hope to people who suffer persecution under Antiochus IV Epiphanes, a Hellenistic ruler who tried to eliminate Judaism. Our reading is of a vision: earthly kingdoms will pass to make way for the kingdom of God. It presents past events as though in the future and continues slightly into the future. Out of the primordial "sea" (v. 2), the chaotic "deep" of Genesis 1:2, stirred up by the spirit of God ("winds of heaven"), Daniel sees four beasts arise – all agents of God. The first three are like a "lion" (v. 4), "bear" (v. 5) and "leopard" (v. 6). The fourth beast is too horrible to be likened to any animal; it has horns. Another small horn appears, symbolizing Antiochus. Thrones are set in place and God ("an Ancient One", v. 9) takes his place, surrounded by attendants; his court sits in judgement. The fourth beast is put to death; the second and third are allowed to linger on. Then "one like a human being" (v. 13, or a son of man) comes from heaven and is presented to God, who gives him a universal, eternal, unconquerable kingdom (v. 14). (Christians saw this figure as the messiah, Christ, but to Jews he represented the archangel Michael and faithful Jews.) The interpretation begins in v. 16. King and kingdom are used interchangeably, so the "four great beasts" (v. 17) symbolize world powers that dominated Israel: Babylon, Medea, Persia and the Seleucids. The "holy ones of the Most High" (v. 18) are Jews who defied Antiochus' decrees against Judaism; there will again be an independent Jewish state which will last for ever. The current persecutions will end. God has permitted Israel to be conquered, but will act soon to rescue his people.

Psalms 149

This psalm was used in a liturgical setting: note "assembly of the faithful". Worshipers are invited to sing "a new song", perhaps new because God continually reveals more of himself to the faithful. V. 3 tells us that hymns were accompanied by "dancing", the "tambourine" and the "lyre". Praise him because he delights in his people and gives victory (in some sense) to those who hold him in awe. (In v. 5 "glory" is a divine title.) May "the faithful" even "sing for joy" in their homes ("on their couches"). Vv. 6-9 appear to be a call to battle, to a holy war: may God's people execute on "nations" (v. 7) and "peoples" the "judgement decreed" (v. 9) by God.

Ephesians 1:11-23

Paul writes to the "saints" (v. 1), those faithful to Christ in Ephesus. He gives thanks for the blessings we have received through Christ: (1) bringing us into union with God; (2) choosing us (v. 4), before his creative act, to be set apart for him; and (3) as part of his plan, adopting us "as his children" (v. 5) – all of this through the love he expressed in sending Jesus. Through Christ's birth, life and resurrection we are absolved of our deviations from God's ways.

Intellectually and through our experience of the Christian way we have come to know God's plan, i.e. to "gather up" (v. 10) all he has created, seen and unseen, to him. Now Paul returns to adoption: we are offspring (inheritors) of God, and as such are forerunners ("the first", v. 12) of many who will come to Christ, living to praise God. Paul has been writing to mature Christians; now, in vv. 13-18, Paul speaks to neophytes in the faith, "as you come to know him" (v. 17), both Jews and Greeks ("you" is plural). "You" were marked as God's in baptism; it is the guarantee ("pledge", v. 14) of being God's children – those who, saved from sin, will have full union with God ("redemption"). Paul gives thanks for the fraternal "love" (v. 15) they have for all members of the Church ("saints"). May you too grow in knowledge and experience of God ("wisdom", v. 17) and receive new understandings of how God works in the world ("revelation"), so that you may come to know: (1) the future joy ("hope", v. 18) to which God has called you; (2) what it means to be joined in God with heavenly beings ("saints"); and (3) how much Christians can achieve using God's power. Christ is now raised and equal to the Father; he is above all angelic beings ("rule ... dominion", v. 21); now God's power acts through him eternally. Christ is "head" (v. 22) of the Church; it is his "body" (v. 23) – the "head" needs the "body", and the "body" the "head".

Luke 6:20-31

In the presence of many people from Israel and beyond, Jesus speaks to his followers. Luke tells us of four beatitudes (vv. 20-22) and corresponding woes or warnings of deprivation in the age to come. Some are "blessed" (happy) by being included in the Kingdom Jesus brings. The warnings are prophecies, cautions. The pairs are: (1) the "poor" (v. 20) and the "rich" (v. 24); (2) the "hungry" (v. 21a) and the "full" (v. 25a); (3) the sorrowful (v. 21b) and the joyous (v. 25b); and (4) the persecuted (v. 22) and the popular (v. 26). The "poor" are those who acknowledge their dependence on God. The "rich" do not want to commit themselves to Jesus and the Kingdom; they are comfortable in their self-sufficiency. The word translated "consolation" (v. 24) is a financial term: they do not realize what they owe to Jesus. The "hungry" hunger for the word of God, the good news; the "full" are satisfied. In v. 22, "exclude" means being socially ostracized and excluded from the synagogue and Temple. The "Son of Man" includes Jesus and his followers: they will be persecuted, as Israel ("their ancestors", v. 23) persecuted Jeremiah, Ezekiel and Amos, but "in that day" (at the end of the era), they will be rewarded. Jeremiah 5:31 says that people spoke well of "false prophets" (v. 26). In vv. 27-29, Jesus expands on v. 22; he tells how to deal with persecution. Followers ("you that listen") should be willing to give all (even to standing naked, without an inner garment, "shirt".) When you give, do not expect reciprocity ("again", v. 30). Emulate God in your actions; seek to match his compassion!

Need time for prayer? Some quiet space?

The church is open every day from 9am until 5pm for you to come and pray, meditate, or sit quietly. There are prayer books and prayer booklets in the Angel Chapel and the Narthex for use, the latter of which you can also download here.

MUSIC COMMENTARY

PRELUDE: 'Andante Tranquillo'
from Sonata 3 in A major, Op. 65

Felix Mendelssohn (1809-1847)

Despite being renowned for his piano works, Mendelssohn was also a skilled organist who, during a trip to Britain, gave a number of well-received organ recitals. This movement comes from Mendelssohn's third, of six, organ sonatas. However, the word sonata, in this context, is not meant to imply a classical sonata form, but instead as Bach would have used it (for a collection or suite of varying pieces).

POSTLUDE: 'Elegy'

Sir George Thomas Thalben-Ball CBE (1896-1987)

Thalben-Ball was an Australian organist and composer who spent almost all of his life in England, having begun his studies at the Royal College of Music at the age of 14. After being asked to deputise at London's Temple Church by then organist Sir Henry Walford Davies, he succeeded Walford Davies as organist and director of the Temple Church choir, a post which he held for nearly 60 years.

He composed several anthems and organ works, of which the best known is his meditative Elegy for organ, which was played, for example, at the Funeral of Diana, Princess of Wales. This piece originated in an improvisation which Thalben-Ball played at the end of a live BBC daily religious service during World War II, when the service finished a couple of minutes earlier than expected. So many listeners to the broadcast telephoned the BBC to ask what the composition was, that he decided to write down his improvisation as well as he could remember it.

ART COMMENTARY

The art on today's pewsheet is by Elizabeth Wang, who was born in 1942 and received into the Catholic Church in 1968. She was an artist with wonderful abilities to paint, in a very simple and yet effective way, the essence of a lot of Christian themes. Today's painting is called 'All Saints' and we can see the saints, almost like upright standing lit candles, standing in communion around the central figure of Christ. We see a kneeling figure in the middle, representing us... in the midst of Christ and His Saints... all one big family.
